Lead Pastor's Report

I saw something in a very familiar biblical passage, that somehow I had never noticed before. It was when Jesus cleansed the Temple of Jerusalem during His final week before He was crucified. By cleansed, I mean that He “began to drive out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and He overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. And He would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple.” Mark 11:15-16. But then, Mark wrote something that none of the other gospel writers included in their recording of this event. He wrote that Jesus said, “Is it not written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations?’” Mark 11:17. Matthew and Luke do not record that part I underlined, and I don't recall noticing it before. God's house, His Temple was to be a place where Jews and Gentiles ('all the nations') could worship, commune, and fellowship with God. Being a Gentile myself, I know well that the salvation Jesus offers is for Jews and Gentiles, but I never noticed before that in the act of purifying His Father's House, He was restoring the Temple's purpose that all people should be able to find their way to God. All through the bible the far-reaching reach of God extends to the whole earth.

Yet how easy it is to lose this focus of what we are to be about as a church. Are we a church where people of every nation, ethnicity and color can feel welcome, and are we a church that goes to people of every nation, ethnicity and color with the good news of Jesus Christ? Jesus declared the extent of the gospel when He said it “will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.” Matthew 24:14. Not only is His church the vehicle to declare it, He will send an angel “with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people.” Revelation 14:6. Through the church and ultimately through this angel, the gospel will be proclaimed to the whole world and the end will come. Friends, we must be witnesses of Jesus Christ to the end of the earth, so that unbelievers from all nations and people groups will get saved.

Therefore it is such a joy to serve a church that increasingly is willing to labor toward this purpose! God has brought so many amazing people to our church, in our offices, around our Board table and in our pews! We have an awesome staffing team! Not the least of which is a new position for Pastor Matthew as he becomes our Executive Pastor. Please pray for him as he continues to be the Second Street Campus Pastor until we can fill that position. Thanks and honor go to both our Elder and Deacon teams. Elders are shepherds of God's church and Deacons are ministers of God's mercy to the people of God. Super special thanks goes to all our ministry leaders who serve so sacrificially! You are answers to our prayer from Ezekiel 36:37-38. How wonderful it is to know that we have dozens of Spanish brothers and sisters, who despite the language differences, hold our love for Jesus and His Word in common! And finally, thank you for all who attend our services and support our church ministries! God has proven Himself faithful through your generosity and presence with us.

2020, as we all know, has been incredibly challenging. We had to immediately pivot to a completely online presence for a time; we had to navigate polarizing opinions on how a church should respond to this virus and the political requirements at both the State and Federal levels; and we had to navigate through a divisive Presidential election with likely serious implications for the evangelical church. Yet through it all-and how we began our response to it all-Psalm 46:1 has been our banner: “God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.” We believe that these challenges and struggles are “the beginning of the birth pains” heralding much more severe struggles ahead for the true church. How we handle the current struggles shows how ready we are to respond when more severe ones come. So how did our church family do through these challenges? I believe we have earned a mixed review.

We have had many in our church increase their presence, finding ways to encourage one another. Many of you have joined a growth group, or begun serving on a ministry team, or reached out to those struggling with encouragement and/or a meal/gift/visit. Our church family has generously given during the pandemic, so we haven't had to lay off staff, or reduce our support to our ministry partners. Fifteen believers were baptized in September, and several others came into our membership. Who can forget the joy of gathering together at Lopatcong Park in Phillipsburg? The joy of seeing so many of our young people leading us in worship. The joy of so many children being dedicated and couples getting married. Praise God we have over 21 Growth Groups with over 260 people encouraging each other toward spiritual growth! Many in our church who are physically vulnerable to this virus, or live with someone who is, have found ways to love and serve each other and continued to 'Be the Church!' Truly exciting!

On the other hand, there have been some disappointments along the way. Some in our church family have responded to our leadership request for each of us to wear a mask with great disappointment and stepped away from our church family. As far as we know, they have left our church. Others have been content to watch services online making little effort to engage and serve and reach out to those in need. We have been told by some that they prefer the ease of watching online in their pajamas with a cup of coffee. For some, gathering together in growth groups, Zoom Bible study groups, worship services have become an option rather than a necessity for spiritual growth. Yet we clearly are told, "And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near." Hebrews 10:24-25. This has been surprising, and not a little discouraging as we had believed our church was better prepared for an event like 2020. Much more difficult times are coming. How will we stay on mission and witness of Jesus to the end of the earth?

Despite these disappointments, we rejoice in the victorious boast of Jesus, "I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Matthew 16:18. Nothing can overcome the Church that Jesus is building! So Cornerstone family, let us serve our great Lord and Savior! I believe we are entering a time when the Church of Jesus Christ will be stronger than our generation in America has ever seen. Let us not grow weary but labor with all we have. We are on the cusp of potentially starting a new campus next year in the Slate Belt area. Looking further out, we have our eye on starting an inner-city campus. We are looking to expand our witness through online services, and most excitingly, intent on learning to grow through seeing the lost come to know Jesus Christ!!

Would you consider deepening your involvement with us? Would you pray for these to become realities, that we would be like the men of Issachar, 'who had understanding of the times, to know what [Cornerstone] ought to do' 1 Chronicles 12:32. Can you not sense 'the Day drawing near'? May each of us hear our Lord say, 'Well done, good and faithful servant' Matthew 25:21. Blessings Cornerstone!
